. . . one for all."

In honor...

. . . of a man who has dedicated his life to the education of youth, the CLAN of 1961 presents this record of the second year at Eastern Hills High School.

Mr. W. A. Meacham talks to Susan Lewis, co-editor of the TARTAN. His alert humor and steady friendship make him a favorite visitor.

"I don't want to dry up on the limb," Mr. Meacham remarks, as he tells of teaching high school curriculum at TCU, reading archaeology, and gardening. He devotes much time to his family, especially to his grandchildren.

"As winter strips the leaves from around us, so that we may see the distant regions they formerly concealed, so age . . . takes away . . . only to enlarge the prospect . . ."

Before retiring last year from his position of Assistant Superintendent of Schools in charge of high schools in Fort Worth, Mr. Meacham realized one of his fondest dreams. For years it had been his desire to see a school with high standards and the best possible facilities built for the Eastern Hills area. We are indebted to this man for his part in making the dream a reality. According to him, our school has lived up to and surpassed the goals set for it and has a bright future. We are truly grateful for his influence in staffing Eastern Hills High School, and we hope we can live up to his dream.

Highlanders enter AAAA-5 competition

Highlanders meet at half time of district encounter for strategy discussion led by Coach Mitcham. Eastern Hills compiled a 1-4-1 district record in the first year of AAAA-5 competition. The lone bright spot was the 42-12 homecoming triumph over the Tech Bulldogs. The Highlanders showed well against state semi-finalist, Paschal, in drawing a close 6-0 loss. Defeats were also suffered against North Side, Arlington Heights and Carter Riverside, although the Highlanders led both Heights and North Side at the half. The tie deadlocked Poly and Hills for fifth place berth in the final district standings.

Goal — Graduation

Senior President, Jim Robbins, backed by his Vice-President, Eugene Held, and Secretary, Dana Gant, has done much to represent and encourage the senior class in their activities and steps toward graduation. Jim served as master of ceremonies of the Senior Banquet, while Dana was in charge of the ring-turning ceremonies. Gene Held was representative of the class in charge of Senior Picnic arrangements. The Seniors of 1961 have made outstanding contributions to the school and have helped to carry on the traditions of the Highlanders.
